

Low land that is often covered by water is

All the populations living in the same place form a

All the moose that live in one place are

The ecosystem that is coldest and farthest north is the

Everything that surrounds a living thing is its

All the living and nonliving things that work together create a

An ecosystem with hot days and little rain is An ecosystem with many grasses and few trees is a community

desert

ecosystem

environment

grassland

population

tundra

wetland

