

The Going to Third Grade Summer Reading Challenge

Complete 10 of the activities, turn them in to your new teacher in the fall, and enjoy a picnic lunch with your teacher and other Summer Challenge friends!

Please use a different book or article for each box.

Text Features Read a nonfiction article in a magazine. Print and complete the Text Features Scavenger Hunt.	Summarize/Retell Read a fiction book. Print and complete the Summarizing a Story by Grade Level page.	Sequence Read a recipe. Print and complete the Sequencing Flow Chart.	Main Idea and Supporting Details Read a nonfiction article. Print and complete the Organizing Ideas page.
Compare/Contrast Read a fiction story. Print and complete the Venn Diagram to compare and contrast two of the characters.	Main Idea and Supporting Details Read a nonfiction chapter or a short nonfiction book. Print and complete the Understand the Main Idea page.	Main Idea and Supporting Details Write a paragraph (or more!) about a favorite summer activity or trip. Print and complete the Organizing Ideas page to brainstorm ideas before you write. Write your paragraph on notebook paper.	Summarize/Retell Read a fiction book. Print and complete the Summarizing a Story by Grade Level page.
Summarize/Retell Read a fiction book. Print and complete the Summarizing a Story by Grade Level page.	Story Structure Write a fiction story. Print and complete the Summarizing a Story page to organize your ideas. Write your story on notebook paper.	Text Features Read a nonfiction article in a magazine. Print and complete the Text Features Scavenger Hunt.	Main Idea and Supporting Details Read a nonfiction chapter or a short nonfiction book. Print and complete the Understand the Main Idea page.
Sequence Read directions to a game or activity. Print and complete the Sequencing Flow Chart.	Main Idea and Supporting Details Read a nonfiction article. Print and complete the Organizing Ideas page.	Summarize/Retell Read a fiction book. Print and complete the Summarizing a Story by Grade Level page.	Compare/Contrast Read a fiction story. Print and complete the Venn Diagram to compare and contrast two of the characters.