

The page is framed by a decorative border of black and white illustrations of children reading books. At the top, three children are shown lying on their stomachs reading. On the left and right sides, a vertical column of children is depicted sitting and reading. At the bottom, three children are shown sitting on the floor reading. The central text is enclosed in a dotted-line border.

Telling About Books

1. Where and when does the story take place?
2. Who are the main characters?
3. What is one of the main characters like?
4. Who is your favorite character? Why?
5. Which picture in the book do you like best? Why?
6. Which part of the story do you like best?
7. How do you feel about the end of the story?
8. What do you remember most about the story?
9. Do you think others would like to read this book? Why or why not?
10. Would you read another book by this author? Why or why not?