Board recognizes Tyler Kincaid

The board recognized Tyler Kincaid, Blue Valley Southwest varsity baseball coach, for being named a National Coach of the Year by The American Baseball Coaches Association and ATEC. Kincaid joins just 10 other coaches across the nation to earn this recognition.

Board recognizes Blue Valley High student Emily Clausen

The board recognized Emily Clausen, a junior at Blue Valley High, for earning a perfect score of 5 on the AP US History exam. She is one of only nine students in the nation to earn a perfect score on the AP US History exam.

Board honors Christopher Mann and Beth Pool

The board recognized Christopher Mann, custodian at Lakewood Middle School, with the Distinguished Service Award. The Board also honored Beth Pool, 5th grade teacher at Heartland Elementary, with the Excellence in Education Award. Pool has been with Blue Valley for 22 years.

Board receives report on 2022 community survey summary results

The board received a report from the Morris Leatherman Company on the 2022 community survey. The purpose of the survey was to gauge general customer satisfaction and gain insight into the Blue Valley community's interest in a 2023 bond referendum. The survey included interviews with 600 registered voters in the Blue Valley School District. Overall, 77% of participants give the district a grade of A or B and 83% of participants agreed that the school district can be trusted to spend money wisely.
