BLUE VALLEY SCHOOLS

Blue Valley Schools is committed to reimagining learning and changing the world. Located in suburban Kansas City, in the heart of Johnson County, Kansas, this 91-square mile school district serves more than 23,000 students.

SCHOOLS
- 21 Elementary schools
- 9 Middle schools
- 5 High schools
- Blue Valley Academy (grades 10-12)
- Center for Advanced Professional Studies (CAPS) (grades 11-12)
- Hilltop Learning Center (up to 5 years old)

STAFF NUMBERS
- 1,873 certified employees
- 1,453 classified employees
- 73% of teachers have a master's degree or higher

STUDENT DEMOGRAPHICS
- 23,019 Early childhood - grade 12 students
- 83 different home languages identified by Blue Valley students
- Ethnicity - Caucasian/White 70.41%; Asian 14.45%; Hispanic 6.38%; 5% Multiracial; African-American/Black 3.42%; American Indian/Alaskan Native American 0.28%; Hawaiian/Pacific Islander 0.04%

ACCOLADES
- All high schools named to U.S. News & World Report's best high schools list and The Washington Post's most challenging high schools list
- 2019 average ACT composite score of 25.2
- 2019 average SAT composite score of 1315
- Jason Sickle, Blue Valley North, named 2017 Kansas Teacher of the Year
- Named #1 school district in Kansas by Niche Rankings

UNIQUE PROGRAMS
- Language Immersion - The district offers a Chinese dual language immersion program beginning in kindergarten.
- CAPS - Students are fully immersed in a professional culture, solving real world problems, using industry standard tools and are mentored by actual employers.
- Academic Support Time - One hour of personalized time offered to students at all high schools daily to meet their academic and social-emotional needs.
- Social-Emotional Support - A comprehensive team supports student well-being, including licensed social workers from Children's Mercy Hospital, counselors, school psychologists, teachers and administrators.
- Blended Learning - An instructional practice that allows Blue Valley teachers to transform learning by leveraging technology to truly personalize learning.