MIDDLE SCHOOL INTRAMURAL PROGRAM
PARENT OR GUARDIAN PERMISSION FOR STUDENT TO PARTICIPATE

By its nature, participation by a student in interscholastic intramurals includes a risk of injury which may range in severity from minor to long-term catastrophic. Although serious injuries are not common in school intramural programs, it is impossible to eliminate the risk of injury. Participants are encouraged to consult with a physician of their choosing to determine fitness to participate. Participants have the responsibility to help reduce the chance of injury. Participants must obey all safety rules, report all physical problems to their coaches, follow a proper conditioning program, and inspect their own equipment daily.
