Empower students to attain advanced communicative proficiency and to expand cultural perspectives as lifelong learners of languages other than English.

OUR LANGUAGES

FRENCH

French is an official or administrative language of numerous world organizations such as the the United Nations and all its agencies, NATO, the European Union, the African Union, International Olympic Committee, the International Red Cross, NAFTA, and many others.

CHINESE

with 1.2 billion speakers, Mandarin Chinese is the most widely-spoken language in the entire world. Business people who speak Mandarin have a huge advantage in tapping into the Chinese market. In addition, Chinese history and culture is one the richest and certainly the oldest in the world. Don't be scared off by the character system. There are no verbs, no plurals, no tenses and no conjugations.

SPANISH

More than 437 million people speak Spanish as a native language. Instituto Cervantes claims that there are an estimated 477 million Spanish speakers with native competence and 572 million Spanish speakers as a first or second language and more than 21 million students of Spanish as a foreign language.
