Congratulations

Congratulations to the Boy's and Girls' Varsity Bowling teams for taking first place at their first meet last night. Junior Dylan Eblen placed first among all boys, Senior Evan Missey took 4th overall. On the girl's side Freshman Bailey Kinkelaar placed first, Sophomore Emaree Nestor took third and Senior Jennifer Jennings placed fourth. It was a dominant victory on both sides of the lanes! Shout out to sophomore Eli Hoskins for his third-place finish on the Junior Varsity side. Bowling's next meet is next Thursday, January 20th at Park Lanes. --Sarah Derks

24 eligible orchestra students auditioned from BVNW (based on their earned seats at Districts in December) this past week, and 12 were selected to the two All-State Orchestras (there is a Full Orchestra and a String Orchestra this year) that will rehearse perform in Wichita in late February. I am so proud of all students--those who earned seats and those who did not this time--who prepared the music and represented our school in this ultra-competitive audition process. BVNW has the highest number of orchestra students accepted into the full orchestra in the entire state of KS again this year.

Congratulations to the following students:

- Braden Bartalos (12) - Violin I String Orchestra
- Daniel Cheng (12) - Bass Full Orchestra
- Alex Cross (10) - Cello String Orchestra
- Emma Du (11) - Violin II Full Orchestra
- Andrew Gafrick (11) - Bass Full Orchestra

This a particularly special honor for Yeanna Moon, Julianne Zheng, and Daniel Cheng, who have earned the distinction of being 3-Year All-State Orchestra Members, an extremely rare feat. Thanks for congratulating these students as you see them this week!

Also, notable on this list, we have 2 section leaders! Yeanna Moon (Principal 2nd Violin) and Andrew Gafrick (Principal Bassist). Wow, you guys. Congrats!

PS--Shout outs to band students Lillian Li (oboe), Elliese Thurlby (oboe), who also made the All-State Full Orchestra. Combined with the strings students above, this is an incredibly impressive showing from the 500 Hallway! Go 'skies!
