

Great Expectations* by Charles Dickens

English Language Arts, 9th Grade

WHAT'S THE STORY?

Against the backdrop of 18th century England, a young orphaned boy from the rural marshlands has a surprise encounter with an escaped convict while visiting his parents' graves. The brief interlude begins an epic tale of Pip's "great expectations" from a poverty-stricken blacksmith's apprentice, to a well-do-do London "man about town." However, during Pip's journey, friendships are lost and found, the lessons of wealth and its promises and failures are plentiful, and the enduring power of the strong bonds of family is emphasized. These are some of the many themes woven through this classic British novel.
