WHAT'S THE STORY?

This is a coming of age story of a girl living in Africa in the 1960s. The colonization this female protagonist encounters contributes to racial tension as well as class struggles. The central conflict in this memoir deals with this young girl's quest for advancement from her primitive existence to an educated, civilized way of life. Through the various relationships, she understands the challenges of different lifestyles and moves from an idealistic perspective to a more realistic view of life.
