Reading more books this summer?
Use an additional sheet of paper and attach it to this log.

DID YOU KNOW? Reading at least SIX books helps you remember what you learned last year in school. Read this summer so you'll be ready for school this fall!

How to Play

1. Have fun reading or listening to the books of your choice. The total amount is up to you!
2. Keep track with this log: write down titles, or color in a book, or log minutes spent reading, etc. How you use it is up to you!
3. Return this reading log between June 27 and Aug. 6, 2011, for a FREE BOOK!
Because we value our readers, everyone who participates in the Summer Reading Club by logging at least some of their reading/listening is eligible for the prize.

FINISH!

Turn in your log at any Johnson County Library between June 27-Aug. 6, and pick out your free book!

Summer Reading Frequently Asked Questions 2011

1. Where is the Website for Teens?

The Teen Reading Program for teens 13-19 is all online! Goodreads online club Follow these easy steps to get signed up to win awesome prizes throughout the year! Click here to find a list of current challenges. www.jocoteenscene.org/goodreads.

2. When does the program start and when and where can I turn in my log?

It begins May 23. Turn in your log between June 27 and August 6 at any Johnson County Library.

3. How many books do I have to read?

The total amount is up to you. Reading at least six books helps you remember what you learned last school year so you'll be ready for next school year. But don't stop now...keep reading!

4. Can I read comic books or magazines? Do audio books count?

Yes, our goal is to encourage reading during the summer for fun, and all reading is acceptable. Children may also have books read to them and older siblings can count the books they read to younger brothers and sisters.

5. I am 13 years old. Can I be in both "One World, Many Stories" and the teen Goodreads online summer reading club?

No, please choose one or the other. Teens who participate in the "One World, Many Stories" program will get to choose a prize book at the end. Those in the Goodreads online club can write reviews, discuss your favorite books online with other Johnson County teens and participate in reading challenges to win a variety of prizes this summer and throughout the year. Information about the teen Goodreads online reading program is available at www.jocoteenscene.org/goodreads.

6. How often can I enter the weekly prize drawings? Can I enter at more than one library?

You may submit one entry per visit to any of the libraries.

7. The graded bookmarks may raise the questions: "Do I have to read the books on this list?" and "Do I have to read books on my grade level?"

These are great books, but only suggestions. Read what you enjoy at the level that you choose.

8. Do the books HAVE TO come from the library? Can I read my own books?

The Johnson County Library has a wide variety of books which we encourage you to explore this summer; but you are not restricted to this collection. You may read your own books.

9. Can we count the number of pages read rather than whole books?

Yes. You may measure your progress by pages, books, or time spent reading.

10. Do I have to write out the titles of the books I read?

No, you can decide how to track your reading. If you like to keep a list of the titles you read you can write the titles on the book list portion of the log; but, you don't have to. If you would rather just track the number of books read, you can color in a book picture for each book you read.

11. What do I get when I finish?

You can pick out a prize paperback book at any JCL location between June 27 and August 6, thereafter at any library while supplies last or until August 14. Those returning their completed logs by August 6 are eligible to enter a drawing to be a "Star" on their own Read poster and win a family 4-pack of tickets to the Kansas City Zoo.

12. Will you send my child's completion slip to their school to let them know (s)he participated in the summer reading club?

No information on specific children is sent to the schools; however, we will send the schools a compiled report about the number of children participating in our club from each school. If your child's teacher or school offers
